

PW PERSPECTIVE

THE PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN OF WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A MESSAGE FROM THE MODERATOR...

Over the next few months we have exciting events on the calendar of the Presbyterian Women at Westminster Presbyterian Church. Our Circles will continue to meet - learning more about God's word, enjoying a time of fellowship, and giving to community projects. We will welcome in the Advent season with our Advent Meditation booklet, and we will host our annual Advent Luncheon on November 29th at 11:30am in the Fellowship Hall. At the conclusion of the busy Christmas season, we invite you to take a moment to sit back, relax, and join us at our Epiphany Tea which will be held on January 8th, 2012 at 4pm. These upcoming events will give us an occasion to enjoy time with each other as well as to help us appreciate the birth of Jesus. However, just reflecting on His birth is not enough. To properly celebrate Christ's birth, we should strive to be like Him, giving more of ourselves. On the evening of November 20th, 2011, we will host a Casserole and Bake Goods Sale to benefit the Presbyterian Women's Scholarship Fund. We need casserole contributors as well as willing casserole purchasers! In addition, all throughout the month of November, the Presbyterian Women will be collecting hygiene items to give to needy students attending two of the Title I schools in Greenville County. I invite you to join us at any and all of our events and to help us support our missions. If you have any questions or would like more information about the Presbyterian Women at Westminster Presbyterian Church, please contact me at 233-4038 or KGRepass@aol.com.
